Old Business

- Earth Day: There were 10 participants at City of Portsmouth Adopt-a Spot cleanup event.
- Color Rush: The CPOA donated $750 to CGMA to pay for the cornstarch. CPOA had a tent and we sold over $356 of coffee and swag.

- Chick-Fil-A: CPOA made $210 in profit, the event was held aboard Base Portsmouth.

New Business

- Jessica Barbay has turned over the Public Affairs Chair position to Melissa Leake.
- Chapter voted on the design of the coin, because it was tied both designs will be ordered. The verbiage on the back of the coin will change from “Building the Coast Guard” to “Ut Prosimus” which is “That we may be of Service” in Latin.
- CPOA leadership met with senior members of the Tidewater Consolidated Mess to discuss rebuilding relationships and how to get all of together outside of CCTI. Motion to edit bylaws to allocate NTE $1,000 annually for team building events with the caveat that the officers reserves the right to change that amount due to budget constraints. Motion was seconded, all in favor.
- CWO had a total loss fire in Baltimore, motion to donate $500, motion seconded, all in favor.
- Scholarship winners announced:
 - 1st Place – Mr. Joseph Saulino
 - 2nd Place – Mr. Matthew Jimmerson
 - 3rd Place – Mr. John Meek
- Tidewater CGEA new officers have been chosen the new officers are; President: MK2 Guerra, Krysteen; Vice President: SK2 Wolk, Christine; Secretary: YN2 McManus, Tara; Treasurer: IT2 Evans, Nikolai.
- Coast Guard Day: Motion to submit to a vote up to $1500 to have KONA Ice provide free snow cones for Coast Guard Day, all in favor. Armaris Narvaez is the POC for this event.
- Habitat for Humanity: Help is needed every Wednesday in both location, Virginia Beach and Norfolk. Will set up a time and request volunteers, looking at possibly June 27th and June 29th.
- USO Volunteers needed from June 3-5th, and email solicitation will go out.
- The first week of June is Chesapeake Clean the Bay, Base Portsmouth is not represented, looking at possibly incorporating CGEA, but it may not be feasible due to the short notice but could possible look at a weekend date to participate.

Meeting adjourned at: 1501

Next meeting: June 30th 2022 Time 1400 at Deck Plate, Base Portsmouth.
